Destination Guide

Travelling To & From

Airport Procedures - Be sure to check in for your flights about 12-24 hours prior to travel through the online app or website.

Arrival Procedures - At customs, your passport will be verified, and you'll be asked about your reason for travel - for vacation and leisure, of course!

Getting Around

Transfers - If this was arranged by my travel agency, the transfer company take you from the airport to your hotel, locate your driver who most likely has your name on a sign near the designated pick-up area at the airport.

Rails - The rail system is a popular form of transportation in the major cities. Find the schedule online. here: www.irishrail.ie/en-ie/

Cabs - Cabs are an easy way to get around . Cabs are available in designated areas around popular attractions.

Buses - If bus tickets are included in your package, your tickets will be included in your confirmation numbers. If bus tours weren't included in your package, you can hop on the bus by purchasing an admission pass by the day or by the ride. See nearby bus stop attendants for help! They'll explain different routes and other important information!

Walking Around - Around your hotel, you'll find plenty of shops, pubs, restaurants, etc

Currency

Cash - The euro is used around Ireland, although in Northern Ireland the pound is used. It's a great idea to exchange cash at your bank for a small fee prior to your trip, rather than at the airport or in destination for a larger exchange fee.

Credit - Call your card company and banks before you travel to advise them of your travel dates and destinations. Some fees and restrictions may apply. Please note that sometimes you can use international ATMs for a fee.

Tipping - 10-15% is standard in Ireland.

Communications

Language - While English is commonly used, you may hear some Irish or Gaelic being spoken in Ireland.

Cell Phones - Be sure to let your cell phone provider know of your travels. International travel packages may need to be purchased for service.

Packing for Your Trip

Clothing - Pack mindful layers, knowing the seasons, winds, proper footwear; Daytime is for activewear and keep your style neat but comfortable for the evenings. Check your guided tour itinerary to know for certain what activities you'll want to pack for.

Accessories - In addition to your walking shoes and boots, you may want to bring hats to stay out of the sun and your own refillable water bottles. Be sure to leave any valuables at home or in your room safe.

Bagging Arrangements - Bring a daytime backpack for your belongings and any souvenirs you pick up along the way.

Staying healthy

Activities - Be prepared for the activities outlined in your tour itinerary. Listen to your body during times of high activity levels.

Hydration - Keeping yourself hydrated is crucial. While you may not feel the effects of your activities right away, dehydration can quickly catch up to you.

Be smart in the sun - Wear sunscreen and proper sun protection gear like hats and sunglasses.

Technology

Internet - Some areas provide public Wi-Fi like in restaurants and hotels. Connections can be spotty in rural areas. Hotspots may not be provided outside of the US. Check with your providers.

Electricity - Bring along a converter adapter as suggested for your destination to plug in and charge your devices. No surge electric strips may be recommended in addition to the converter adapters. Use caution as selecting the wrong type of adapter could cause electrical fires or overheated devices. Charged-at-home power banks are also a great idea for charging on the go.

Emergencies

Emergency Phone Numbers - There are two emergency numbers in Ireland - 112 and 999.

US Embassy - A great safety resource for Ireland is: <https://ie.usembassy.gov/>

Travel Protection - Should you need to file a travel protection claim, you will most likely be reimbursed on a credit card for approved claims. See travel protection policies for details.
